Testimonial Dinner - Dance For Postmistress Mary Brady

The Agawam Post Office employees are giving a Testimonial Dinner Dance Saturday, June 27, at the National Guard Armory, Maynard St., Agawam, honoring the retirement of Postmistress Mary E. Brady.

Mrs. Brady was appointed by Franklin D. Roosevelt on June 14, 1939 and has served continuously for 25 years. Mrs. Brady has seen her office grow in compliment from a Postmaster, one clerk and one carrier to its present force of 21 employees and from a gross receipt of approximately $8,000 to well over $100,000 per year.

Mrs. Brady is a Gold Star

MARY E. BRADY

Mother, with the J. J. Brady Village, named after her late son, Joseph J. Brady. She is a member of the Mass. Postmaster Association and National Postmaster Association.

George T. Casiello, Assistant Postmaster, is chairman and is assisted by Mario DeLucchi and Robert DeForge.

Inter-Group Relations Specialist, Valley Church Guest Speaker

Dr. Walter H. English, outstanding leader and educator, will be the 5th guest speaker of the spring season under the auspices of the Valley Community Church. The service is at Old Storowton Church, Exposition grounds, Sunday, May 24th, 10 A.M. (Please note change of time.) The topic chosen by Dr. English is, "The Breaking Point," and will clarify the Christian approach to the Civil Rights issue.

Dr. English received his B. A. & M. A. degrees from Howard University, Washington, D. C. After four years of service in WW II, he received his Doctorate in Education from Columbia University, New York City.

On leave of absence from the Springfield School Dept., with which he has been connected for the past 14 years as teacher and Guidance Counselor, he was appointed

Intergroup Relations Specialist for the City of Springfield in July 1963, by Mayor Ryan. As Director of this office he formulates, implements, executes, interprets, and coordinates policies and programs of the Human Relations Commission, the Minority Group Housing Commission,

Dr. English is in great demand as a speaker because of his authoritative opinions and factual information regarding the vital Civil Rights situation. All thinking individuals should welcome this opportunity to receive a better understanding and knowledge of the current situation.

A sincere and cordial invitation is extended to the public to hear and meet Dr. English at the 10 a.m. service, Old Storowton Church, on Sunday the 24th. A coffee hour will be held downstairs, immediately following.

Hansel-Gretel Nursery Pupils

The Hansel And Gretel Nursery is now accepting registration for its Fall term. In the summer the nursery school is equipped to care for children of working parents. There is "Supervised Play" for preschool age children from three to five years of age every morning from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, in the afternoon from 12:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

"Supervised play" for preschool age children must be a supplement — not a substitute for home. It is an activity where children learn to get along with others — especially designed to allow children to be noisy, active and creative. The ultimate goal is to help each youngster to grow into an individual who will be responsible for his actions and who will be willing to accept the consequences of his own behavior.

Flexibility of program is evident in that no two days are alike. New equipment and properties are introduced when needed to stimulate further play. Children are encouraged to choose their own play activities. Stories, music, and some dramatic play may be initiated by the teacher but participation is voluntary. Indoor and outdoor play are included in the daily schedule.

Those who wish to register for the 1963-1964 term may contact Mrs. Margaret Stapleton at RE 7-2383. Also, those interested in enrolling children for the summer may call the above number.

AGAWAM POST OFFICE

By Edith LaFrancis

The first Post Office in Agawam Center was opened on January 13, 1815 with John Norman as Postmaster. Previous to this, mail had to be picked up at the Old Brick Store in West Springfield. Postage was paid in coin and letters were sent without envelopes.

The new Postmaster was a veteran of the Revolution and came from Norwich, Conn. He bought the McVigh place on the corner of Meadow St. when he first came but sold to a Mr. Walkley. He intended to go West to settle but his wife refused to go so he bought the Lewis Pomeroy place on South Main St. and opened a blacksmith shop.

Since the appointment of John Norman there have been nine other Postmasters, one of whom, Charles Hastings, held the office for nearly 40 years.

The terms of office have been: John Norman, 1815-1823; Norman Warriner, 1823-1829; Asa Whitman, 1829-1833; Lyman Whitman, 1833-1849; Lyman Allen, 1849-1853; Lyman Whitman, 1853-1861; Lyman Allen, 1861-1885; Charles W. Hastings, 1885-1925; Roy Bailey, 1925-1934; Miss Minnie Barden, 1934-1939; Mrs. Mary Brady, 1939 to the present.

The first two men probably kept the office in their own homes but the Whitmans kept it in their store at the corner of South and Main Streets. When Lyman Allen was appointed he moved it to his house. (Second north of Elm. Built by Roderick Allen, later owned by Frank Campbell and now by Richard VanHeusen.) After 5 years, Lyman Whitman was again appointed and moved it back to the south end.

When Edward K. Bodurtha built the grocery store on the site of the present Agawam Market in 1858 the Post Office was moved there.

Lyman Allen's second term was ended by his death on the railroad crossing at the South End Bridge in 1885. Charles Hastings bought out the grocery business about that time and also served as Postmaster. For short times, the office was kept in the Pond house, 845 Main St. by R. Millard and in the Bodurtha house on Elm St. but neither is on the official list of Postmasters.

The original wooden store built by Bodurtha was sold to William Shaylor and moved to Center St. where it still serves as a house. A new store and Post office was built. Roy Bailey bought the grocery business from Hastings and about 1934 sold to Smith.

About 1942, Joseph and Nazareno Cardone bought the grocery business from Smith and the building and land from Bodurtha. They put up the present Post Office building in 1949.

Rural delivery service was established in 1900. Monroe Hayward made the first rounds with a horse and buggy, and George Reed later with a Ford. (Assistant Vern Perry Meyers was at the wheel of the Model T one day when the left rear wheel came off in the middle of Main St.)

House to house delivery began in 1954. The zones were shifted so that mail for North Agawam which was previously delivered by the West Springfield P. O. is now sent out from Agawam. In 1875, mail came in 3 times per week. Now there are 4 mails coming in per day and 3 despatches.

Lippincott's Gazetteer of the World in 1889, describes Agawam as a "Post village in the township of Agawam. Population of the township is 2248. It has a woolen factory, a brick yard, five churches and a paper mill." The Post Office has grown to first class and the population to 16,000. A $93,000 building will be in use on the 150th anniversary of the first Post Office, which was kept by the village blacksmith.

SPORTSMEN'S CORNER

By Bill Chiba

The New England Outdoor Writers Association held its Spring get-together at the Hidden Cove Resort, Route 3, Laconia, New Hampshire this past week-end—May 15, 16, 17.

John Brennan, New Hampshire Division of Economic Development, hosted the writers and did a wonderful job in keeping things rolling smoothly. Frank Parker, outdoor writer from New Hampshire, assisted John in making the preparations for the conclave. Tom and Pat Perrault, proprietors of the resort went out of their way to see that the members enjoyed themselves and wanted for "nothing."

The land locked salmon in Lake Winnepesaukee were very cooperative the whole week-end and every writer caught fish except one, Arthur Sullivan, Boston Record American, he is still sputtering to himself over his inability to connect with a fish.

The Mooselook Wobbler was the hot lure. It took salmon consistently, the color of the wobbler meant nothing, for everyone caught fish on a different color and size Mooselook. Stan Berchulski, Springfield Daily News, and this writer had a ball catching the fighting salmon on our sinking fly lines and fly rods. The orange spotted and the red Mooselook produced most of the fish for us. I took the two largest fish on a streamer that Tony Godek of Feeding Hills made up for my Atlantic salmon jaunt. The steamer worked just as well on the landlocked salmon. I am just going to have to try them on the rainbows in Quabbin. We went down very deep for a few hours Sunday afternoon in search for the large lakers that are lurking in the murky depths of the lake. Stanley had two good wallops, but failed to set the hooks. The week before a 15 and a 20 pounder were taken. The next two weeks should be the hottest period for lakers and large salmon. The water temperature is on the rise, and this makes for the exciting fishing that you read about every year during the last week of May and the first week of June. If you are looking for a place to go Memorial Day Week-end, I suggest that you journey up to Laconia. The fishing will be at its best.

FISH POND ACCESS SITE

The legendary community of Podunk will be put on the map, when the first inland pond access site is formally dedicated in ceremonies by the Division of Fisheries and Game, at 2:30 p.m., Friday, May 22. The new access facility, the first created on an inland pond in Massachusetts under the State Access Board, is on Quaboag Pond in Brookfield and East Brookfield, on Quaboag Street, which connects with Route 9. The general area has been unofficially known for many years as "Podunk."

The public access, which makes available a 541 acre great pond with excellent warm-water fishing and provides connecting access to 226-acre Quacumquasit Pond plus several miles of the Quaboag and East Brimfield rivers, was built with federal Accelerated Public Works funds turned over to the Access Board by the Division of Fisheries and Game.

Sacred Heart Junior League Sponsors

The opening day ceremony for the Sacred Heart Junior League was held at the Sacred Heart field with 150 boys participating. The boys, in full uniform, were led in a parade by the V.F.W. and "The Carmelites" of Mount Carmel Church, Springfield.

Mt. Tom's Stars

Continue To Grow

The impressive list of stars that will be appearing this summer, at the new Mt. Tom Playhouse, located in Holyoke, grew this week, with the signing of two delightful comedienne, Peggy Cass and Imogene Coca; the incomparable Tallulah Bankhead; and the ever popular Van Johnson.

Peggy Cass, appearing in "Lullaby", the delightful spoof, has established herself as one of television's brightest comedienne. She has appeared on the Jack Parr Show, Charade and many others. In recent years, Miss Cass has headlined some of the most successful shows of the summer theatre circuit.

Imogene Coca needs no introduction to theatre goers. She last appeared in the Greater Springfield area, in the National Touring Company of "Once Upon The Mattress," the hit Broadway Musical Comedy. Miss Coca will appear in "A Rainy Day In New York", the hilarious comedy that is being rewritten especially for her limited summer tour.

Tallulah Bankhead, long considered to be one of Broadway's finest stars, will be appearing in the witty and charming comedy "Glad Tidings". Miss Bankhead is well remembered for her vivid Broadway performance in Noel Coward's "Private Lives", in addition to many other roles of note.

Van Johnson will be appearing in the heartwarming Hit Broadway comedy "A Thousand Clowns." The tour of "A Thousand Clowns" is limited, and Mt. Tom Playhouse feels most fortunate to be able to present it to the Pioneer Valley theatre public.

Some people would like to take a trip to the moon but are afraid to sit in the front row at church.

PROMENADERS

By Norm and Dot Jenks

Dick Steele is ready again to give out with some wonderful fast moving square dancing this Friday, May 22nd. The place is Robinson Park School and the time is 8 p.m. Our refreshment chairmen, Don and Peg Dow, will be on the spot with something appealing at coffee time.

Election Time!

All members are urged to attend the semi-annual meeting at the close of this dance. The nominating committee headed by Tino and Anita Davilli will present the new slate of officers to be voted into office.

Steak Roast Tickets

Steve and Lucille Parchick now have tickets for the annual steak roast to be held at Strathmore Park on the 27th of June. Be sure to get yours at either this dance or the June 12th dance.

Round Dancing

Since round dancing is becoming more popular among square dancers, it has been decided to promote a little more interest at Agawam by teaching one new round dance a month. For those readers who are not familiar with round dancing, it is a very lovely form of patterned, ballroom dancing.

When you are "confused" it's when you don't know enough about a thing to be worried.

Agawam delegates to the state convention of International Lions Clubs at Swampscott this last weekend heard an inspiring speech by International President Aubrey D. Green of Alabama. He recounted some of his experiences in his visits this past year to 104 countries of the free world, and what local Lions are doing in the way of building schoolhouses, churches, and hospitals.

Our own District Governor

Dick Menzel, as chairman of the Mass. Board of Governors, was toastmaster and Bob Watson of the Agawam club was sergeant-at-arms.

There were ten Agawam delegates, and the new District Governor is Arthur Tinney of Cheshire, who defeated Bill Girotti of West Springfield 91 to 76. Agawam received third prize in the scrapbook contest, and Art Fuchs is to be congratulated on his fine presentation.

Last evening the club celebrated their 20th anniversary at the Olde Town House of Agawam, and the 200 guests enjoyed a memorable evening.
